Introduction: With the progress of adhesive dentistry, composite resin is considered the most widely used restorative material. The polychromatic nature of natural teeth makes composite resins available in a wide shade of colors for the best matching with enamel and dentin. Recently, the universal composites have been introduced to simplify color selection and improve color matching. In these composites, the "blending effect" improves the color

MASTER JOURNAL LIST

The screenshot shows the 'Master Journal List' website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the 'Web of Science Group' logo, 'Master Journal List' title, and links for 'Search Journals', 'Match Manuscript', 'Downloads', and 'Help Center'. On the right side of the navigation bar, it says 'Welcome, nasrin makani' with 'Settings' and 'Log Out' options.

The main content area features a 'Manuscript Matcher' modal window. The modal has a title bar with a close button (X). The text inside the modal reads: 'Manuscript Matcher helps you find the most related journals for your manuscript. It works best when your title has at least 10 words and your abstract has at least 100 words. Using this information, it will pull the most relevant keywords for matching. Please enter your manuscript information below.'

There are two input fields: 'Title' and 'Abstract'. The 'Title' field contains the text: 'Zinc supplementation does not influence serum levels of VEGF, PDGF, and NGF in diabetic retinopathy patients: a randomized controlled clinical trial'. The 'Abstract' field contains the text: 'Strong positive relationship between the growth factors and their inverse association with metabolic factors is possibly suggesting the contribution of these factors in the pathogenesis of DR through acting in a same biological pathway. © 2018 Informa UK Limited, trading as Taylor & Francis Group'. Both fields have a small icon in the bottom right corner.

Below the input fields, there are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Find Journals'. A purple text overlay at the bottom of the modal reads: 'عنوان و چکیده مقاله را وارد نمائید'.

Abstract

This study was aimed to evaluate the effects of zinc (Zn) supplementation on serum levels of vascular endothelial growth factor (VEGF), brain-derived neurotrophic factor (BDNF), and nerve growth factor (NGF) in patients with diabetic retinopathy (DR). Methods: In this randomized clinical trial, 50 patients with DR were allocated into the Zn (n = 25) and placebo (n = 25) groups to receive 30 mg Zn gluconate or maltose dextrin per day, respectively, for three months. non-specific interactions. The effect of temperature on the different volumetric properties studied was also analyzed. In addition, the volumetric thermal expansion coefficients were calculated. The Jouyban-Acree model was used for density and molar volume correlations of the mixtures at the different experimental temperatures. The mean relative deviations between experimental and calculated data are 0.04 ± 0.03 and 0.04 ± 0.05 , respectively, for the density and molar volumes, using the minimum number of data points, the Jouyban-Acree model can predict density and molar volume with acceptable accuracies (0.06 ± 0.04 and 0.08 ± 0.05 , respectively). © Springer Science+Business Media, LLC 2012.

Two red arrows point to specific parts of the interface with Persian text annotations:

- The first arrow points to the input field for titles and abstracts, with the annotation: "با کلیک بر این قسمت می توانید به صورت کلیدواژه ای هم جستجو نمایید" (By clicking on this part, you can also search using keywords).
- The second arrow points to the input field for queries, with the annotation: "نمائید" (represent).

The main content area includes a large text box for entering titles and abstracts, with the instruction: "Insert your title and/or abstract here: (or, click here to search using keywords)". Below this box, there are buttons for "Scramble", "Clear", and "Show extra options".

Below the text box, there are three buttons: "Find journals", "Find authors", and "Find articles".

On the right side, there is a "Welcome to Jane" section with a yellow heading. The text below the heading explains the tool's purpose: "Have you recently written a paper, but you're not sure to which journal you should submit it? Or maybe you want to find relevant articles to cite in your paper? Or are you an editor, and do you need to find reviewers for a particular paper? Jane can help!". It then provides instructions on how to use the tool: "Just enter the title and/or abstract of the paper in the box, and click on 'Find journals', 'Find authors' or 'Find Articles'. Jane will then compare it to millions of documents in PubMed and find the best matching journals, articles, and authors." Below this text, there are sections for "keyword search" and "predatory journals".

At the bottom right, there is a link for "Additional information about Jane".

Welcome to Jane

Have you recently written a paper, but you're not sure to which journal you should submit it? Or maybe you want to find relevant articles to cite in your paper? Or are you an editor, and do you need to find reviewers for a particular paper? Jane can help.

Just enter the title and/or abstract of the paper in the box, and click on 'Find journals', 'Find authors' or 'Find Articles'. Jane will then compare your document to millions of documents in PubMed to find the best matching journals, authors or articles.

Keyword search

Instead of using a title or abstract, you can also search using a keyword search, similar to popular web search engines. Click here to search using keywords.

Beware of predatory journals

JANE relies on the data in PubMed, which can contain papers from predatory journals, and therefore these journals can appear in JANE's results. To help identify high-quality journals, JANE now tags journals that are currently indexed in MEDLINE, and open access journals approved by the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ).

CALL FOR PAPERS

<https://www.nature.com/srep/calls-for-papers>

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <https://www.nature.com/srep/calls-for-papers>. At the top, there is an advertisement for Springer Finance Lecture Notes with a 'Submit your proposal' button. Below the ad, the page header features the 'scientific reports' logo, navigation links for 'View all journals', 'Search', and 'Log in', and dropdown menus for 'Explore content', 'About the journal', and 'Publish with us'. There are also links for 'Sign up for alerts' and 'RSS feed'. The main content area shows a breadcrumb trail: 'nature > scientific reports > calls for papers'. The title 'Calls for papers' is prominently displayed, followed by a paragraph: 'Highlight your research and enhance its visibility to your field and community by submitting to one of our calls for papers, for our upcoming Guest Edited Collections. For enquiries, please contact scirep.collection@springernature.com.' Below this is a 'Subject' dropdown menu currently set to 'All'. At the bottom, a 'Collection' section is partially visible, featuring 'Biofilm-related infections'. An 'Activate Windows' watermark is present in the bottom right corner.
